The Premises:

As previously described: clean comfortable, fairly discreet as it opens to a small car park behind the high street.

The Lady:

Tall, slim, toned, smooth, beautifully proportioned and a big smile. A very attractive young woman.

The Story:

This was the first of two sessions at Ego on the same day. Welcomed at the door very quickly after buzzing, shown up to the room and offered a drink. I had a shower by the time Jayda appeared. There needs to be a routine for a time limited service, but each lady obviously has her own variations and touches and ways of going about things within that framework. I think I made the mistake of mentioning tension in my back, so the balance of the experience was a bit more tilted towards therapeutic than sensual than I would have preferred. Nevertheless, Jayda's oily sliding all over my back with what felt like all her weight did me a lot of good and she was comfortable with me touching her (within the obvious limits for this type of service) wherever I could reach. Once I'd turned over, Jayda was a delight to watch at work as she built up the tension towards the inevitable conclusion.

From my experiences so far at Ego, including a session with another of the ladies later that day, I would say that the approach is properly professional and that the ladies are dedicated to making sure you have a good time. Add to that the variables based on how individuals are feeling at the moment, and the chemistry or rapport that may or may not develop with any given pair of people, and you should have an experience that is going to be good, at the very least, and can be fantastic.
