The Premises:

Flat above commercial premises close to Streatham station. Flat a bit shabby to be honest (but fit for purpose) although no where a bad as the entrance to the communal entrance to the flat itself which stunk of damp. At this price range however I guess this is to be expected to some extent

The Lady:

Facially- face hidden in pictures attractive enough to peak my interest but for me nothing special. May be a 7.5. (" I have paid a lot more for worse!). Very little make up being worn (if any) so no false advertising going on!

Body- In pretty good shape, reasonably slim but could do with a little bit of gym work to firm up belly/bum. Tits were a little bit droopy.

The Story:

I had planned to see someone at Maxes Angels' but experienced a bit of drama on that end (see my next review) so had to sort something else on short notice. I had been making a list of girls more local to south London for short visits so gave Cleo a ring and no answer she immediately text me back and we arranged the rest by text address length of appointment etc. Everything quite straightforward.

On arrival I thought presentation could have been a bit better, she was essentially waeing sleepwear (not the sexy kind) just loose short shorts and a vest, not especially sexy but decent enough figure was evident.(The heat may have had something to do with it) Very little make up. I don't think her legs had been shaved for a few days though as every now and then I felt a bit of stubble (nothing I could see visibly though)

Offered a shower which I gladly accepted as it was boiling outside and in.

Offered OWO or OW at the beginning and elected for OWO this time around as I had opted for the hour. When I felt the urge I switched and gave her some attention with tongue and fingers, licking her nipples and DFK which she seemed to enjoy. After some time I straddled her face so she could suck my cock some more. I enquired about facial but she indicated that was something she didn't do so Came in her mouth instead.

A bit of a breather and offered a massage but I decline instead opting for some more sucking to get me hard again. After a bit of time I decided to lube her ass up. All she had available was Baby oil which while effective as you may know degrades Latex Condoms. Fortunately I had some KY in my bag. So fingered her arse gradually increasing to two fingers before penetrated her ass in various positions. She took it like a trooper but I could tell she wasn't entirely comfortable as I am fairly big so I didn't go too vigorous after a number of positions came with her lying prone and me kneeling on her ass.

There was a bit of confusion after this as I still had about 20 minutes to go but she kept asking me whether I wanted a shower. Eventually the confusion subsided and basically she has a limit of guys Cumming twice within an hour appointment. Whilst this was a bit annoying as I was still horny and I was looking to give her pussy a real pounding It did not bother me too much. I had CIM and Fucked her in the Ass for £100.00 so gave her the benefit of the doubt although this is something she should perhaps make clear at the outset. That being said given the lower end of the P4P market this type of thing is not uncommon and I probably should have asked earlier about unlimited pops etc, that way I could have held out second time around so that I could have fucked her pussy as well.

Overall a very good value for money punt, reasonably attractive, all services included in the price. She was very receptive and obliged at nearly every request (except for facial). Not particularly active, but responsive enough to make you feel that she was enjoying as well. Its hard to imagine finding anything better at £100 per hour. A bit of effort on presentation would go along way though
