The Premises:

Samantha's House is in a very nice and discrete location, felt very safe entering and leaving, did not feel as though the whole world was watching me. Clean and Tidy. Samantha obviously prides herself on a very clean and tidy, warm and friendly service.

The Lady:

Samantha is in her own words in her Early 40's but she could pass as being in her early 30's (not kidding)cuddly not your model type but neither bbw, in Samantha's words built for comfort not speed. Lovely personality with warmth and understanding, and to top it all lovely 42d breasts, all natural. JUST PERFECT

The Story:

I had contacted Samantha via her website about her Tie and Tease service. Told her i was a complete novice but would like to try her Tie and Tease but with one of her Massages first.Eventually deciding on her Two hour STRESS BUSTING massage. First Hour Massage then Tie and Tease for next hour.

On arrival at Samantha's was offered a drink and we proceeded to talk about what i wished from our session together and general every day things. Samantha comes over as a warm, friendly lady who is intrested in her clients not just the money side. Absolute Gem is Samantha.

Her massage is well worth the money spent on its own let alone the rest of her service. Samantha is a fully qualified Masseuse, aromatherapist and reflexologist so no quick fumbling five minute back rub but a full invigorating massage to relax and put you at ease, and thats just the start of great things to come. This is a great help to people like myself who are complete novices or the nervous (both applied to me).

Then after an assisted shower to remove the oil so as not to damage/ruin samantha's bondage equipment on to the tie and tease.

Samantha states that she does not consider herself a professional dominatrix as she has no dungeon facilities but has nearly 10yrs of social experience in the BDSM scene. If you require the complete dungeon scene then perhaps Samantha is not the one for you but for anyone looking to take there first faltering steps into the BDSM scene you could do alot worse. What Samantha lacks in equipment is far outwayed by her knowledge and enthusiasm. I will not go into detail on what

Samantha does with you as i could never write well enough to give her service justice. Samantha has a few limitations on what she will and will not do, (which are explained on her web page)but over all her session's should be experienced to be believed. I am glad i choose to visit Samantha for my first experience and could not have chosen a better person. I have been spoiled and the only problem is that will the next time i decide to visit a Mistress will it be a let down? can things get any better? or have i had the best experience i am likely to find?

Samantha was a little under the weather when i went to visit and my appointment had to be cut slightly short. No fault of Samantha's, if it had been me i probably would have cancelled it but Samantha does not like to disappoint. All i can say is if this is the quality of service she supplies when feeling like that then god only knows what it would have been like if she was 100%, it was wonderful and Samantha was running on only half a tank.

Samantha deserves respect, kindness and your discretion and she returns that with interest.

I probably have not given Samantha the acknowledgement she richly deserves in this report but i hope you have a little insight to the wonderful service she supplies.
