The Premises:

Upmarket area in West London, easy parking, well appointed basement flat, discreet, cosy, comfortable and welcoming.

The Lady:

Vivacious and well-endowed blonde who has received a string of compliments from clients who have inevitably emerged with a huge grin on their faces! Previously in Lancaster Gate, Sasha moved to a new location near Hyde Park last year, where she is quietly (no, make that noisily!) reinforcing her reputation as one of the most friendly and sexy ladies in the capital.

The Story:

Count myself as a regular, so this might be a bit biased! Sasha portrays an in-built sexuality that puts you at ease once you step into her bedroom. There are enough signs round the room that choices are on offer, a relaxing massage or something a little raunchier. I guess for me the attraction is that Sasha comes across as the perfect courtesan, wicked and wild; soft and sensual - she responds to whichever mood you are in that day. Little use in giving a blow by blow account (that is good to!), each visit is different. Sasha gives ever indication of enjoying her role - and push the right buttons, so will you!
